

ST MARY'S CATHEDRAL

Solemn Vespers and Benediction

The Office of Evening Prayer

Nineteenth Sunday of the Year

WEEK III

9 August 2020
5.00pm

THE OFFICE OF VESPERS

Vespers, also called Evening Prayer, is part of the Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office. In the Liturgy of the Hours, the Church fulfills Jesus' command to "pray continually". Through hymns, psalms, canticles, readings, and prayers, the people of God sanctify the day by continual praise of God and intercession for the needs of the world.

The Liturgy of the Hours includes several specified times of prayer. The most important times are Morning Prayer: Lauds (which takes place upon rising) and Evening Prayer: Vespers (which takes place as dusk begins to fall). The Office of Vespers gives thanks for the day just past and makes an evening sacrifice of praise to God.

Bishops, priests, deacons, and many men and women in consecrated life pray the Liturgy of the Hours each day. Their work is organised around this prayer, keeping God always at the centre of their days. Lay people are encouraged to pray the Liturgy of the Hours as well, especially Morning and Evening Prayer. The public singing of Lauds and Vespers is a regular part of the life and worship of St Mary's Cathedral.

INTERCESSIONS

God is ever creative. His love renews all things and is the source of our hope. Let us turn to him in confidence:

℟: Lord, accept our thanks and our prayers.

We give thanks for the order of created things: – you have blessed us with the resources of the earth and the gift of human life. ℟

We give thanks for man's share in your continuing work of creation: – we praise you for your gifts to him of inventive skill and creative vision. ℟

We pray for all the nations of the world: – may those in authority work for peace and goodwill among men. ℟

We pray for all who are homeless today: – we pray for families searching for a place to live, and for refugees driven from their homeland. ℟

Life was your first gift to us: – may those who have died come to its fullness in you. ℟

At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say:

All sing

O UR Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our dai-ly bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we for-give those who trespass a-gainst us;
and lead us not in-to temp-ta-tion, but de-liv-er us from e- vil.

COLLECT

ALMIGHTY, ever-living God, we confidently call you Father as well as Lord. Renew your Spirit in our hearts: make us ever more perfectly your children, so that we may enter upon the inheritance you have promised us. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

℟. Amen.

THE MOTET

MANUS tuae fecerunt me et plasmaverunt me: da mihi intellectum et discam mandata tua. Qui timent te videbunt me et laetabuntur: quia in verba tua supersperavi. Cognovi Domine quia aequitas iudicia tua: et veritate humiliasti me. Fiat misericordia tua ut consoletur me: secundum eloquium tuum servo tuo. Veniant mihi miserationes tuae et vivam: quia lex tua meditatio mea est. Confundantur superbi quia iniuste iniquitatem fecerunt in me: ego autem exercebor in mandatis tuis. Convertantur mihi timentes te: et qui noverunt testimonia tua. Fiat cor meum immaculatum in iustificationibus tuis: ut non confundar. Amen.

It was your hands that made me and shaped me: help me to learn your commands. Your faithful will see me and rejoice for I trust in your word. Lord, I know that your decrees are right, that you afflicted me justly. Let your love be ready to console me by your promise to your servant. Let your love come and I shall live for your law is my delight. Shame the proud who harm me with lies while I ponder your precepts. Let your faithful turn to me, those who know your will. Let my heart be blameless in your statutes lest I be ashamed.
