

ST MARY'S CATHEDRAL

Solemn Vespers and Benediction

The Office of Evening Prayer

Twentieth Sunday of the Year

WEEK IV

16 August 2020
5.00pm

THE OFFICE OF VESPERS

Vespers, also called Evening Prayer, is part of the Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office. In the Liturgy of the Hours, the Church fulfills Jesus' command to "pray continually". Through hymns, psalms, canticles, readings, and prayers, the people of God sanctify the day by continual praise of God and intercession for the needs of the world.

The Liturgy of the Hours includes several specified times of prayer. The most important times are Morning Prayer: Lauds (which takes place upon rising) and Evening Prayer: Vespers (which takes place as dusk begins to fall). The Office of Vespers gives thanks for the day just past and makes an evening sacrifice of praise to God.

Bishops, priests, deacons, and many men and women in consecrated life pray the Liturgy of the Hours each day. Their work is organised around this prayer, keeping God always at the centre of their days. Lay people are encouraged to pray the Liturgy of the Hours as well, especially Morning and Evening Prayer. The public singing of Lauds and Vespers is a regular part of the life and worship of St Mary's Cathedral.

WHAT you have come to is Mount Zion and the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem where the millions of angels have gathered for the festival, with the whole Church in which everyone is a 'first-born son' and a citizen of heaven. You have come to God himself, the supreme Judge, and been placed with spirits of the saints who have been made perfect; and to Jesus, the mediator who brings a new covenant and a blood for purification which pleads more insistently than Abel's.

The Lord said to the Canaanite woman: It is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the house-dogs. She replied; Ah yes, sir; but even house-dogs can eat the scraps that fall from their master's table. Then Jesus answered her, 'Woman, you have great faith. Let your wish be granted.

INTERCESSIONS

In the Church, God has made known to us his hidden purpose: to make all things one in Christ. Let us pray that his will may be done.

℟: Father, unite all things in Christ.

We give you thanks for the presence and power of your Spirit in the Church: give us the will to search for unity, and inspire us to pray and work together. ℟:

We give you thanks for all those whose work proclaims your love: help us to serve the communities in whose life we share. ℟:

Father, care for all who serve in the Church as ministers of your word and sacraments: may they bring your whole family to the unity for which Christ prayed. ℟:

Your people have known the ravages of war and hatred: grant that they may know the peace left by your Son. ℟:

Fulfil the hopes of those who sleep in your peace: bring them to that final resurrection when you will be all in all. ℟:

At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say:

O

UR Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our dai-ly bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we for-give those who trespass a-gainst us;

and lead us not in-to temp-ta-tion, but de-liv-er us from e- vil.

COLLECT

LORD God, you have prepared for those who love you what no eye has seen, no ear has heard. Fill our hearts with your love, so that, loving you above all and in all, we may attain your promises which the heart of man has not conceived. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

℟. Amen.

THE MOTET

CLAMABAT autem mulier Chananæa: Domine, Iesu Christe, Fili David, adiuva me. Filia mea male a dæmonio vexatur. Non sum missus, nisi ad oves quæ perierunt domus Israël. At illa venit, et adoravit eum, dicens: Domine, adiuva me. Respondens Iesus ait illi: Mulier, magna est fides tua: fiat tibi sicut vis.

A Canaanite woman started shouting, 'Lord, Jesus Christ, Son of David, help me. My daughter is tormented by a devil. He said in reply, 'I was sent only to the lost sheep of the House of Israel.' But the woman had come up and was kneeling at his feet. 'Lord', she said, 'help me.' Jesus answered her, 'Woman, you have great faith. Let your wish be granted.'
