

ST MARY'S CATHEDRAL

Solemn Vespers and Benediction

The Office of Evening Prayer

First Sunday of Lent

WEEK I

21 February 2021
5.00pm

THE OFFICE OF VESPERS

Vespers, also called Evening Prayer, is part of the Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office. In the Liturgy of the Hours, the Church fulfills Jesus' command to "pray continually". Through hymns, psalms, canticles, readings, and prayers, the people of God sanctify the day by continual praise of God and intercession for the needs of the world.

The Liturgy of the Hours includes several specified times of prayer. The most important times are Morning Prayer: Lauds (which takes place upon rising) and Evening Prayer: Vespers (which takes place as dusk begins to fall). The Office of Vespers gives thanks for the day just past and makes an evening sacrifice of praise to God.

Bishops, priests, deacons, and many men and women in consecrated life pray the Liturgy of the Hours each day. Their work is organised around this prayer, keeping God always at the centre of their days. Lay people are encouraged to pray the Liturgy of the Hours as well, especially Morning and Evening Prayer. The public singing of Lauds and Vespers is a regular part of the life and worship of St Mary's Cathedral.

«Sede a dextris meis, 'Sit on my right:

donec ponam inimicos tuos: your foes I will put scabellum pedum tuorum». beneath your feet.'

Virgam potentiae tuæ emittet Dominus ex Sion: The Lord will wield from Zion your sceptre of power:
dominare in medio inimicorum tuorum. rule in the midst of all your foes.

Tecum principatus in die virtutis tuæ, A prince from the day of your birth in splendoribus sanctis: on the holy mountains;
ex utero ante luciferum genui te. from the womb before the dawn I begot you.

Iuravit Dominus et non pænitebit eum: The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change.

Israel potestas eius. Israel became his kingdom.

Mare vidit et fugit, The sea fled at the sight:
Iordanis conversus est retrorsum; the Jordan turned back on its course,

montes saltaverunt ut arietes, the mountains leapt like rams

Quid est tibi, mare, quod fugisti? Why was it, sea, that you fled,
Et tu, Iordanis, that you turned back, Jordan,

Montes, quod saltastis sicut arietes, Mountains, that you leapt like rams;

CANTICLE

1 Peter 2:21-24

Christus passus est pro vobis Christ suffered for you, vobis relinquens exemplum, leaving you an example ut sequamini vestigia eius: that you should follow in his steps.

qui peccatum non fecit, He committed no sin;
nec inventus est dolus in ore ipsius; no guile was found on his lips.

qui cum malediceretur, non remaledicebat, When he was reviled, he did not revile in return.
cum pateretur, non comminabatur, When he suffered, he did not threaten;
commendabat autem iuste iudicanti; but he trusted to him who judges justly.

qui peccata nostra ipse pertulit He himself bore our sins in corpore suo super lignum, in his body on the tree, ut peccatis mortui iustitiæ viveremus; that we might die to sin and live to righteousness.

cuius livore sanati estis. By his wounds you have been healed.

Gloria Patri, et Filio, Glory be to the Father and to the Son et Spiritui Sancto, and to the Holy Spirit,

Sicut erat in principio et nunc et semper as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
et in sæcula sæculorum. Amen. world without end. Amen.

The Antiphon is repeated.

ALL the runners at the stadium are trying to win, but only one of them gets the prize. You must run in the same way, meaning to win. All the fighters at the games go into strict training; they do this just to win a wreath that will wither away, but we do it for a wreath that will never wither.

INTERCESSIONS

God the Father has chosen for himself a people, who are born again, not from any mortal seed but from his everlasting Word. Let us praise his name and turn to him in prayer.

℟: Lord, have mercy on your people.

Merciful God, hear our prayers for all your people; may they hunger more for your word than for any human food. ℟:

Teach us to love sincerely the people of our nation and of every race on earth; may we work for their peace and welfare. ℟:

Strengthen those who will be reborn in baptism; make them living stones in the temple of your Spirit. ℟:

May the dying go forward in hope to meet Christ, their judge; may they see your face and be happy for ever. ℟:

At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say:

℟: Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

COLLECT

THROUGH our annual Lenten observance, Lord, deepen our understanding of the mystery of Christ and make it a reality in the conduct of our lives.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

℟: Amen.

The Choir sings

THE MOTET

Emendemus in melius, quæ ignoranter peccavimus: ne subito præoccupati die mortis, quæramus spatium pænitentiae, et invenire non possimus. Attende, Domine, et miserere: quia peccavimus tibi.

Let us correct our faults which we have committed in ignorance, let us not be taken unawares by the day of our death, looking in vain for leisure to repent. Hear us, O Lord, and show us your mercy, for we have sinned against you.

Ascanio Trombetti (1544-1590)

Tantum ergo Sacramentum veneremur cernui; et antiquum documentum novo cedat ritui: præstet fides supplementum sensuum defectui.	Therefore we, before him bending, this great Sacrament revere; types and shadows have their ending, for the newer rite is here; faith, our outward sense befriending, makes the inward vision clear.
--	---

Genitori Genitoque laus et iubilatio, salus, honor, virtus quoque sit et benedictio: Procedenti ab utroque compar sit laudatio. Amen.	Glory let us give, and blessing to the Father, and the Son; honour, might, and praise addressing, while eternal ages run; ever too his love confessing, who, from both, with both is one. Amen.
--	--

CONGREGATIONAL SINGING IS CURRENTLY SUSPENDED.

At this time the sung responses are made by the Choir on behalf of all.

∿ Panem de cælo præstitisti e- is.
You gave them bread from heaven.

∿ Omne delectamentum in se habentem.
Containing in itself all sweetness.

Oremus.

DEUS, qui nobis sub sacramento mirabili passionis tuæ memoriam reliquisti: tribue quæsumus, ita nos corporis et sanguinis tui sacra mysteria venerari; ut redemptionis tuæ fructum in nobis iugiter sentiamus. Qui vivis et regnas in sæcula sæculorum.

∿ Amen.

Let us pray.

O God, who in a wonderful Sacrament has left us a memorial of your passion: grant us so to venerate the sacred mysteries of your Body and Blood, that we may perceive within ourselves the fruit of thy redemption; who lives and reigns for ever and ever.
