

ST MARY'S CATHEDRAL

Solemn Vespers and Benediction

The Office of Evening Prayer

THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

16 May 2021
5.00pm

THE OFFICE OF VESPERS

Vespers, also called Evening Prayer, is part of the Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office. In the Liturgy of the Hours, the Church fulfills Jesus' command to "pray continually". Through hymns, psalms, canticles, readings, and prayers, the people of God sanctify the day by continual praise of God and intercession for the needs of the world.

The Liturgy of the Hours includes several specified times of prayer. The most important times are Morning Prayer: Lauds (which takes place upon rising) and Evening Prayer: Vespers (which takes place as dusk begins to fall). The Office of Vespers gives thanks for the day just past and makes an evening sacrifice of praise to God.

Bishops, priests, deacons, and many men and women in consecrated life pray the Liturgy of the Hours each day. Their work is organised around this prayer, keeping God always at the centre of their days. Lay people are encouraged to pray the Liturgy of the Hours as well, especially Morning and Evening Prayer. The public singing of Lauds and Vespers is a regular part of the life and worship of St Mary's Cathedral.

INTERCESSIONS

Rejoicing, let us pray to Christ who is seated at the right hand of the Father.

℟: You, Christ, are the king of glory.

King of glory, in you our mortal flesh has been lifted to the heights: deliver us from the corruption of sin and restore us to immortal life. ℟:

Following the path of love, you came down to us from heaven: let us follow that same path in our ascent to you. ℟:

You promised to draw all men to yourself: do not let any of us be separated from your body. ℟:

You have ascended into heaven: let us be there with you in our minds and hearts. ℟:

We await your coming in majesty on the great day of judgement: may we then gaze upon your glory, with all the faithful departed. ℟:

At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say:

All sing

O UR Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our dai-ly bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we for-give those who trespass a-gainst us;
and lead us not in-to temp-ta-tion, but de-liv-er us from e- vil.

COLLECT

ALMIGHTY God,
fill us with a holy joy;
teach us how to thank you with reverence and love
on account of the ascension of Christ your Son.
You have raised us up with him:
where he, the head, has preceded us in glory,
there we, the body, are called in hope.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

℟: Amen.

THE MOTET

OMNES gentes plaudite minibus, iubilate Deo in voce exsultationis. Quoniam Dominus excelsus terribilis, Rex magnus super omnem terram. Subiecit populos nobis, et gentes sub pedibus nostris. Ascendit Deus in iubilo et Dominus in voce tubæ. Psallite Deo nostro, psallite: psallite Regi nostro, psallite, psallite sapienter. Quoniam regnavit Deus in aeternum.

Clap your hands, all peoples! Shout to God with loud songs of joy! For the Lord, the Most High, we must fear: he is the great king over all the earth. He subdued peoples under us, and nations under our feet. God has gone up with a shout, the Lord with the sound of the trumpet. Sing praises to God, sing praises! Sing praises to our King, sing praises! Sing praises with a psalm! God reigns for ever.
