

ST MARY'S CATHEDRAL

First Vespers

The Office of Evening Prayer

Fourteenth Sunday of the Year

WEEK II

2 July 2022
5.30pm

THE OFFICE OF VESPERS

Vespers, also called Evening Prayer, is part of the Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office. In the Liturgy of the Hours, the Church fulfills Jesus' command to "pray continually". Through hymns, psalms, canticles, readings, and prayers, the people of God sanctify the day by continual praise of God and intercession for the needs of the world.

The Liturgy of the Hours includes several specified times of prayer. The most important times are Morning Prayer: Lauds (which takes place upon rising) and Evening Prayer: Vespers (which takes place as dusk begins to fall). The Office of Vespers gives thanks for the day just past and makes an evening sacrifice of praise to God.

Bishops, priests, deacons, and many men and women in consecrated life pray the Liturgy of the Hours each day. Their work is organised around this prayer, keeping God always at the centre of their days. Lay people are encouraged to pray the Liturgy of the Hours as well, especially Morning and Evening Prayer. The public singing of Lauds and Vespers is a regular part of the life and worship of St Mary's Cathedral.

THE HYMN

Bless'd be the Lord our God! With joy let heav-en ring;
Be-fore his pre-sence let all earth Its songs of ho-mage bring!
His migh-ty deeds be told; His ma-jes-ty be praised;
To God, en-throned in heav-'nly light, Let ev-ery voice be raised.

All that has life and breath,
Give thanks with heartfelt songs!
To him let all creation sing
To whom all praise belongs!
Acclaim the Father's love,
Who gave us God his Son;
Praise too the Spirit, giv'n by both,
With both for ever one!

Let every creature, in heav'n and on earth, bend the knee at the name of Jesus.

CANTICLE
Philippians 2:6-11

Cantor 1 Though he was in the | form of | God, *
Jesus did not count equality with God a thing | to be | grasped.

All 2 He emptied him-self †
taking the | form of a | servant, *
being born in the like- | ness of | men.

3 And being found in human form, †
he humbled himself and became obedient | unto | death, *
even death | on a | cross.

4 Therefore God has | highly ex- | alted him ***
and bestowed on him the name which is above | every | name.

5 That at the name of Jesus every | knee should | bow, *
in heaven and on earth and un- | der the | earth,

6 And every tongue confess that Jesus | Christ is | Lord, ***
to the glory of | God the | Father.

7 Glory be to the Father and | to the | Son *
and to the | Holy | Spirit,

8 as it was in the beginning, is now, and | ever | shall be, ***
world without | end. A- | men.

All repeat the Antiphon.

MAY God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace. We always give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you. For we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of your love for all God's people. When the true message, the Good News, first came to you, you heard of the hope it offers. So your faith and love are based on what you hope for, which is kept safe for you in heaven. The gospel is bringing blessings and spreading through the whole world, just as it has been among you.

INTERCESSIONS

God our Father leads us forward with great love towards the joyful day when we enter his rest.

℟. Our hope is all in you, Lord God.

Father, we pray for Francis our Pope, and Anthony our Archbishop: guide them and bless them in their work. ℟.

Help the sick to share their sufferings with Christ: may they know in him the fullness of life and love. ℟.

Lord, you found nowhere to lay your head: make us aware of the needs of the homeless today. ℟.

Bless those who work on the land: may we receive the fruits of the earth with thankfulness. ℟.

Father, have mercy on those who have died in the peace of Christ: receive them into the home you have prepared for them. ℟.

At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say:

All sing

O UR Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our dai-ly bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we for-give those who trespass a-gainst us;
and lead us not in-to temp-ta-tion, but de-liv-er us from e- vil.

COLLECT

LORD God, when our world lay in ruins, you raised it up again on the foundation of your Son's Passion and Death. Give us grace to rejoice in the freedom from sin which he gained for us, and bring us to everlasting joy. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

℟: Amen.
